

Error against horizon, by rank

$r = 43$ (the largest rank tested) stays 6-11 orders of magnitude below every static subspace saturates in rank:
baseline, and is off this log axis $r \geq 16$ buys it nothing, at any horizon spread of the static error across ranks (max - min)/min, all ranks, %

